Step 1

Go to our web site www.birdworld.com.au and download the auction catalogue, auction rules and bidding procedure documents.

Step 2

Read the above documents carefully. Decide what lots you wish to bid on and then contact your local dealer, club or aviculturalist and determine what the current market values are for the lots you are interested in.

Step 3

E mail auction@birdworld.com.au and give us your name, address, phone number, closest airport serviced by Australian Air Express and what Lot numbers you wish to bid on. Clearly identify how much you wish to bid on each lot. Please note that 10 % GST will be added to the purchase price of your birds, so ensure that you allow for this when you do your calculations. Don't forget freight !! (E mail us for quotes)

Step 4

A Birdworld representative will contact you by phone and confirm your details and the amounts you wish to bid for on each lot. You will be asked for your credit card details, and you will be charged for your successful purchases plus GST on the day of the auction.

Step 5

AFTER the auction a Birdworld representative will contact you either by phone or E Mail and advise you of your successful purchases, and then make arrangements to freight your birds to you, or for you to have them collected from Birdworld.

The cost of freighting, including boxes will be given to you, and once this has been completed, your credit card will be charged for the freight cost, and your birds despatched to you. Birdworld will house your purchases at no cost for 7 days to allow the most suitable freight date for you to be worked out.

If you are not contacted within 48 hours it is safe to assume that you were not successful in any of your bids (please note that we will be a little busy over this time – we are not actually being rude !!)

Step 6

Collect your birds from the airport. If there are any problems with the birds point this out to the airline staff, take a photo and advise us, e mailing the photo as proof. As we have said, we guarantee live delivery to the airport of your choice !!!
